

Welcome home sports friends!

You are part of our Friends of St. Anton community, so our home is also your home. We share a passion for sport and a love of international flair in the mountains of Tyrol. No matter where we come from, we all feel a strong connection to this region. Our individuality makes time and experiences together colourful and unique. We want to protect and preserve this region for future generations, so we treat nature and each other with respect.

Let's spend as much quality time as possible and make great memories together. We are the Friends of St. Anton.

TOGETHER WE EXPERIENCE THE ARLBERG

Let's ensure that our values are shared and put into practice. Together we can do something sustainable for our region.

We explore, enjoy & respect

EXPLORE ENJOY RESPECT

Are you a Friend of St. Anton as well?

RESPECTFUL

We treat nature and each other with respect in order to protect and preserve the region for generations to come.

PASSIONATE

We share a common passion for sport and an active, international lifestyle in the mountains of Tyrol.

CONNECTED

No matter where we come from, we feel at home in the St. Anton region and hold a deep connection to its places and people.

OPEN

We are welcoming, hospitable and open. We love individuality – it makes time and experiences together colourful and unique.

UNFORGETTABLE

Our aim is to spend as much quality time together as possible – making memories, having fun and gathering experiences that will stay with us forever.

THANKS

For protecting our environment.

We love our region and want to preserve it for future generations.

For treating each other with respect.

We want to experience and share beautiful moments.
